OUR COUSINS ON CHINA—
AGAIN.

We have frequently had to notice the singular nature of the news items from China which adorn the columns of our American contemporaries, and each successive file of papers adds to the collection of literary curiosities which the painstaking paragraph-collector is able to collect. The last mail has again afforded us the opportunity of a hearty laugh at the gullibility which swallows such extraordinary stories, for be it noted that they are not recorded as travellers' tales from the East, with a possible medium of truth in their composition; but as literal facts, throwing fresh light upon foreign relations with what home journalists so frequently designate "this vast and little known empire." Firstly, we have a very apocryphal account of Mr Burlingame's interview with the Swiss Minister at Washington, at which the Chinese envoy is reported to have indulged in the most touching expressions regarding China and Switzerland. At one stage of the interview, when invited to visit the Federation:—

"Mr Burlingame replied that this invitation on the part of the oldest and time-honored republic had awakened feelings of deep appreciation on the part of himself and associates. They jointly thanked Switzerland for offering the right hand of fellowship (!) He deemed it a proud epoch in the history of Helvetia and the mighty republic which they were about leaving, that they were among the first to offer their sympathies and extend real good will to the as yet but little known and appreciated nations of the far East."

Fancy the "associates" in the attitude of thanking Switzerland! Mr B. promised to visit Switzerland and negotiate a commercial treaty shortly. Was all this only translated to the Associates, we wonder?

But this though bunkum and amusing enough, is nothing to the next item. According to "information received," a certain Italian adventurer named Cesar Moreno, believes he has discovered an island of great richness and vast extent somewhere on the coast of China. On returning to Europe he offered it to the Italian Government, to Prussia, and to the Emperor of the French, but that no one would have it, so he betook himself to the United States, and writes from New York that the Government of that country is disposed to come to terms with him. "He admits that, disgusted by the refusals he had met with, he went to America with the intention of raising a band of filibusters to take possession of the said island, but before doing so it occurred to him there could be no harm in calling on Mr Seward, who received him well, considered the affair, and seems likely to conclude it." Moreno says that he expects soon to start to take possession of the island in the name of the great republic."

We are naturally curious as to the precise location of this island. Is it Hongkong? or has Formosa been re-discovered by this gifted explorer. At least we trust that Mr. Secretary Seward will let us know where the new acquisition lies before concluding all arrangements!

The Round Table, not being given to credulity, is wise enough as a rule to confine its remarks on such startling topics to "chaff." But even in the following paragraph it has evidently been practised upon.

"Mr Burlingame or some other potentate should be called upon to extort an apology or a retraction from the perverse and pious press. It seems that they have taken to calling the 'second-chop English,' and the agreeable title has been so widely adopted by the East Indian and European press as to promise to stick. Let it be respected.

We are really unaware of this title having been adopted by the Indian and European press in China, or elsewhere. But the Table has kindly suggested it, and we do not refuse so handsomely an abbreviation as "second chop English" or more shortly "No. 2 English" for the long-winded "Citizens of the United States."

They are often (wrongly) called, "Americans" more on account of the word being concise than from its foundation in fact. We trust our "second chop" cousin will continue to afford us such useful information and amusement as henceforth.

The Shanghai Express is no doubt a very smart little paper, and generally acts on the late Mr Somebody's advice to "come up to time" but in the matter of the Dayepring affair, in its issue of the 28th Dec, it says— "We strongly comment this matter to the ferretting propensities of our southern contemporary, the China Mail, for if such things are tolerated, unrebuked, Hongkong and its journalists are no longer in a position to cast a stone at their neighbouring colony of Macao, which will soon cease to have a speciality for Coolie abuses." If our contemporary has been so attentive to its China Mail, as thought to have been,

it would have seen that early in November we gave a report of the inquest held near Melbourne on the bodies of deceased passengers, and mildly asked "who was to be hanged in Hongkong" on account of the facts then disclosed, and the Express has by this time found—or ought to have found—that we have since (Dec. 21) drawn more forcible attention to it. And the Mail is the only paper that has done so in Hongkong, so this implied rebuke from the North leaves it withers unwrung. We have not heard whether any inquiry or not has been locally made into the circumstances attending the Dayepring's departure from this port.

Residents dwelling within a radius of half-a-mile from the Clock Tower, were somewhat startled at the old year proclaimed its decease to hear the chime half-break out into a sort of spasmodic bark which continued for some ten minutes and engendered the suspicion that "something had got into the works." We fancy however that the something was

2 p.m., after a good passage of less than five days from Hongkong; unfortunately at that place it was a sub-side, and further progress towards Shanghai was delayed till next morning at 4 o'clock, when she crossed the Woosung Bar with a few inches to spare under her keel; and proceeded to Shanghai, where she is now discharging alongside Hunt's Wharf. The United Service is circulated for Hongkong on Saturday evening, Jan. 2nd.

The Salamis, which came in from Manila yesterday, brings some rather unpleasant news of the gunboat Leven. This vessel, it may be remembered, left here some time back for Manila, to bring on the crew of H. M. new gunboat Gnat, which was wrecked on the S. W. end of the Island of Palawan. The crew of the Gnat arrived in safety at Manila, and forty-five of the men were put on board the Leven, which left for this port somewhere about the 18th Dec. She has not arrived here, and very serious apprehensions are entertained for her safety.

The Salamis also brings intelligence to the effect that three days after the Gnat went on shore, she was struck by lightning, and blew up, but fortunately without injuring any one.—Press.

Both Magistrates ate to-day, and a fair amount of business was transacted of a kind fairly interesting to the public.

Inspector Burton charged one of the partners in the Western Slaughter House with having had a dead pig in a boat to one of the coolies were charged along with the partner. Inspector Gervon, it seems, saw the two coolies carrying the pig in company with a live pig, and the Inspector accordingly concluded that this dead pig was being smuggled along with the live one to the slaughter-house; they were seen on the wharf, and were suspected of intending to get it round to the slaughter house in a boat.—Tung Amoon, the first-named prisoner, however, said that he had given orders to take the dead pig in a boat to Green Island (7 Yen-mah-tee), there to throw it into the sea.—Inspector Burton having stated that no complaint had hitherto been made against Tung Amoon, his Worship said that he hoped the defendants were getting rid of the dead pig in the way they mentioned. Any attempt to dress and prepare a pig which had died from disease or natural causes would be punished by a fine of $200, as sure as they were born.—Dismissed.

The drunken element was active yesterday, owing probably to the cold weather and the weakness of the year. A man named Nolan was up for having got drunk and given a respectable Chinaman a beating. Mr. Agel, the Hindustani interpreter, at the Magistrate's gave the prisoner in charge. Nolan was sent to hard labor for seven days.—Christopher Nielsen, Ben Andersen, and Andrew Olsen, of the Harriet Brewery, had a proper drunken spree last night near the National Tavern, in fact, one of the constables designated the row "a riot." Policemen were knocked down, kicked, and generally abused, one or two coats being torn; and then the usual folly of a rescue was carried out or attempted as a grand finale. Prisoners know nothing of it, but his Worship ordered them to pay $5, in default twenty-one days' hard labor.—Alexander Wegener, seaman of the S. S. Elfrida, was fined fifty cents for having been drunk and incapable.—G. F. Crawley (ship driver), Thomas Matson and John Coles (S. S. Rangoon) were also drunk and incapable last night, and added fifty cents each to the Magistrate's Treasury.

W. Busche, keeper of the Hamburg Tavern, charged a Chin-boy with having left his services without leave on 31st Dec. 1868. Complainant said that he had missed many things from the house. Mr. Goodlake thereupon sent the boy to Gaol for six weeks as a rogue and vagabond.

Two chair-coolies were charged with the larceny of a despatch-box, $50, and some keys from the possession of Major McKenna. It appears that, on Thursday last, the two coolies were hired by the Major to carry the box to the Barracks, and it was not until some hours afterwards that the box was missed. The coolies were therefore given in charge; and the story they tell is somewhat curious. They say that on hearing the Barracks, they were asked to give up the box to a sergeant in a red coat, upon which they carried it to the Wharf near by, from which wharf the red-coated man went into a sampan.—His Worship said that he had little doubt but the box would be found at Singapore, as it appeared to him very likely the box had been in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the

hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the

hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the

hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the

hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the

hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the hurry of unloading on the 31st, in the years and one month ago. It appeared from the evidence that, on the 4th Dec. 1864, upon returning from the Cathedral service, Mr. Storey and his father (who is now in England) discovered a chest of drawers broken open; a quantity of valuable property missing; and the prisoner

(the house-coolie) now at. A solid silver fido, a cash-box containing $30 in notes, some promissory notes, three sets of gold studs, a small nugget of gold, two breast-pins and a gold locket, were included in this general sweep on the part of the coolie; and Mr. Storey valued the property stolen at the sum of $200. Besides this, however, property belonging to Mr. Storey (editor) was also missing, to the value of $175. Prisoner had run off, and all the other servants were retained in the service of complaint. Nothing was heard of this coolie from Dec. 4, 1864, until the 27th ultimo, when Mr. Storey saw prisoner at the new premises of Messrs Melchers & Co., Peddar's Wharf. Prisoner was therefore arrested, as Mr. S. was certain of his identity, brought up to the Magistrate next day, and remanded.—Pang Afook, a messenger at the Surveyor General's office, identified the prisoner as a servant to Mr. Storey while he (Mr. S.) was living in Wyndham Street in December 1864, and said he remembered Mr. S. speaking of a robbery having occurred about that time at his house in Wyndham Street. This witness identified the prisoner amongst a number of others in the Charge Room on the 23rd ultimo. The Charge Room Interpreter stated that, in reply to questions put by him to prisoner at Inspector Grimes' request, prisoner first said that he did not know Mr. Storey and then that he did know him and lived with him for a month as coolie. Prisoner further said that he had been for one year with Mr. Baker, and two years with Mr. Melchers since that time.—Mr. Jarman (assist. apt.) having put in the report of the robbery made in December 1864, prisoner said that he was employed by Mr. Storey, senior, at year's ago, but denied all knowledge of the robbery.

—Mr. May thereupon committed the prisoner for trial at the next Criminal Sessions of the Supreme Court.—In the report put in the robbery was fully detailed, the property valued in all at $376, suspicion attached to an absconded coolie named Afook (now Afook), and a reward of $50 offered for the said coolie's apprehension.

COORESPONDENCE.

THE RHENISH MISSIONARY SOCIETY AND DEPOSED STAMPS.

To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL."

SIR,—You have done the Rhinish Missionary Society and its agents in China the honor to close your editorial work of the past year in dealing with a matter in connection with that Society.

As you have reported on our colleagues in your issue of the 26th Dec. 31, 1868, to "solve the most interesting mystery" about the selling of Postage Stamps to the Chinese for missionary purposes, you will allow me to give you the following answer. The explanation required is already given in the "Record" of date October 20th, 1868, a copy of which I take the liberty of sending you for the information of your readers.

I scarcely need add that the mystification is not "based on reports from China," so far as the agents of the Rhinish Missionary Society are concerned. The origin of this "humbug" in a local Hamburg paper must be ascribed to a person totally unacquainted with the Rhinish Missionary Society. This Society has its head-quarters at Barmen, in Rhinish Prussia, but no agents in Liepzig. The latter place is the centre of another, the Lutheran Missionary Society, which has its representatives in India, and not a single one in China. I therefore venture to suggest that the "Hambro's Gist" and his friends, with their

"universality of minute and accurate information" about the missionary work, are not to be looked for in the hyperborean regions, but in some corner of Hamburg, where the anonymous newspaper is fabricated.

Hoping that the "feeling of boundless on-riosity of the reading world" is, now gratified, or at least brought down to a reasonable degree, I conclude with the ancient exclamation: "Farturimus moris et moerit ridemus nos!" and am, Sir, your most obedient servant.

A. KROLCZYK, Agent of the Rhish. Mis. Soc.

The following is the letter referred to in the CHINESE AND OLD POSTAGE STAMPS.

SIR,—A paragraph having appeared in several papers, and amongst others in the Record, to the effect that the Rhinish Missionary Society are collecting postage stamps and selling them to the Chinese, who use them for purposes of covering the unbellaid and rooms, and that with the proceeds derived from this unique trade the Society have already succeeded in erecting certain buildings for the use of the Mission, and as we have received several inquiries and offers of stamps for sale from your subscribers, we will perhaps allow us to state that notwithstanding the credit that might be claimed for the ingenuity and industry of the missionaries if these statements were true, unfortunately the collector of the Society has information that they are entirely without foundation.

W. MALAKIRU & Co., Agents of the Rhinish Missionary Society, 97, Hatton Garden, London (E. C.).

Oct. 26, 1868.

[We gladly give insertion to Mr. Krolczyk's explanation. But we would observe that the Record is not a paper which can be supposed to give "publicity" to any matter of general interest. The statement appeared in several papers and in several papers the

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
THIS Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climate of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine. It is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it never fails in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are afflicted by the debilitating effects of the above climate will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cures all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treatment.

F. W. MITCHELL,
Postmaster General,
General Post Office, Hongkong, 9th September, 1868.

1.—On the 1st October next, and thenceforward Money Orders will be issued at this Office and at the Agencies thereof at Shanghai and Yokohama, and all the Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for amounts not exceeding £10, at the rate of Exchange Current for each Mail, and charged with Commission according to the following Scale, viz:—

For sums not exceeding £2, 12 " "
Above £2 and not exceeding £5, 12 " " £5 " £7, 12 " "
£7 " £10, 12 " "

2.—No Money Order to include a fractional part of a Penny.

3.—Orders drawn in the United Kingdom upon Hongkong, Shanghai, and Yokohama, will be paid at the rate of Exchange at which Money Orders are being issued at the time of their presentation.

4.—Alphabetical Lists of over 3,700 Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, showing the Counties in which they are situated, are hung up for public reference at this Office, and also at Shanghai and Yokohama.

5.—Applicants for Money Orders must furnish, in full, the surname, and, at least, the initial of one Christian name, both of the Remitter and the Payee; if the Remitter is a Peer or a Bishop, his ordinary title will be sufficient; if a firm, the usual designation of such firm, such as "Baring Brothers," will suffice; but the mere term "Messrs," such as "Messrs. Richardson," or the name of a Company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, such as "Carson & Co." is inadmissible.

6.—The Remitter on stating that the Order is to be paid through a Bank, to have the option of giving or withdrawing the name of the Payee; in such case, the Order will be issued in the same way that Cheques are commonly crossed when they are intended to be paid through a Bank.

7.—When an Order is presented through a Bank, a receipt by any person will be sufficient, provided the Order be crossed with the name of the receiving Bank, and be presented by some Person known to be in the employ of such Bank.

8.—The signature of the Payee of a Money Order to be affixed to the Order in the place provided for the purpose. If the Payee be unable to write he must sign the receipt by making his mark in the presence of a Witness, who must sign his name with his address in the presence of the Officer who pays the Order.

9.—Should the Payee of a Money Order desire to receive payment in the Country in which the Order was issued, at some other Office than that in which the Order was originally drawn, the transfer will be granted, provided the Order be enclosed to the Postmaster of the Office in which it was issued. In such case the chargeable upon which will be deducted from the amount of the new Order.

10.—In the event of a Money Order being intercepted or being lost, a duplicate will be granted on a written application from the Payee, (containing the necessary particulars, and accompanied by an additional Commission) to the Office where the Original Order was issued.

11.—On the receipt of a similar application, orders will be given to stop payment of a Money Order, or to renew a Lapsed Order. The additional Commission in the last case will be deducted from the amount of the new Order. Lapsed Orders must be presented with the application for a new Order.

12.—But when it is desired that any error in the name of the Remitter or Payee should be corrected, or that the amount of a Money Order should be repaid to the Remitter, or that a Lapsed Order should be renewed for payment in the Country in which the Order was originally drawn, application must be made to the Chief Money Order Office of each Country. This application must be accompanied by an additional Commission, unless it have reference to a Lapsed Order, in which case the Commission will be deducted from the amount of the new Order.

13.—Repayment whether of an original, or renewed, or a duplicate Order, will not be made to the remitter until it has been ascertained that the Order has been cancelled at the Office on which the Order was originally drawn.

14.—Payment of an Order must be obtained before the end of the Sixth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn; for instance, if drawn in January, payment must be obtained before the end of July, otherwise the Order will become lapsed, and a new Order (for which a second Commission will be deducted from the amount of the Order, will be charged) will become necessary.

15.—If an Order be not paid before the end of the Twelfth Calendar Month after that in which it was drawn, for instance, if drawn in January and not paid before the end of the following January—all claim to the Money will be forfeited, unless, under peculiar circumstances, the Post Office of the Country in which the Order was drawn think proper to allow it.

16.—After once paying a Money Order by whomsoever presented, the paying Office will not be liable to any further claim. If a wrong payment, however, be made owing to negligence on the part of any Officer of the Post Office, the Postmaster General of the Country or Colony in which the negligence occurs will, if he see fit, require the Officer in fault to make good the loss.

17.—No Money Order will be paid unless the advice has been previously received.

18.—Additional Rules for the better working of the system generally will be made at such time as may be required.

19.—Should it appear that Money Orders are used for mercantile purposes, or others, either in the United Kingdom or at Hongkong, Shanghai or Yokohama, for the transmission of large sums of money, the British or Colonial Post Office, as the case may be, will consider the propriety of increasing the Commission, and will exercise the power of wholly suspending for a time the issue of Money Orders.

By Command,
F. W. MITCHELL,
Postmaster General,
General Post Office,
Hongkong, 22nd August, 1868.

APPENDIX—Containing Sailing Directions for the Coast of China, and for the Japan Islands; also giving the meanings of Chinese Words occurring in Charts and Sailing Directions; and also a Table of Positions of places on the Chinese and Japanese Coasts.

The author in his Preface says:—"The tables in Chap. VII., for estimating prices, measurement of goods, exchanges, &c. have been selected from those constantly in use among the foreign merchants in China. Those for calculating the prices of 'bits' in dollars or pence have been copied from the more extended tables, by the kind permission of the author, P. Loureiro, Esq." The section of the same chapter on "Movements in Bullion," has been prepared and furnished for the Guide by Patrick R. Harper, Esq., of the Commercial Bank of India at Hongkong, who has had much experience in the exchanges and movements of the precious metals in Eastern Asia.

"The Appendix of Sailing Directions has been reprinted from the 'China Pilot.' With short interruptions, the coasts from Singapore to Hakodadi are all described in it; and for the Chinese coast, the Directions have been improved by the insertion of the Chinese characters for the names of all places that could be ascertained."
